UAE Market Commentary

- UAE equity markets ended in negative territory yesterday, pressured by losses in financial and real estate sector stocks.
- Financial stocks, Dubai Investments dropped 2.5%, while Amlak Finance and Dubai Financial Market fell 2.3%, each. Lenders, First Gulf Bank and Abu Dhabi National Energy Co lost 1.9% and 1.8%, respectively. Peer, Dubai Islamic Bank fell 1.9%. Property sector stocks, Eshraq Properties, Arabtec Holding and Union Properties eased 2.8%, 2.1% and 1.7%, respectively.
- Elsewhere, the US Federal Reserve raised interest rates for the first time this year and signalled a faster pace of increases in 2017, saying that the labour market continued to strengthen and economic activity has been expanding at a moderate pace since mid-year.
- Meanwhile, in a bid to ward off currency pressure, central banks of Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Bahrain, raised interest rates following the rate hike decision of the US Federal Reserve.
- The Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange (ADX) general index ended 0.9% lower at 4,497.39, while the Dubai Financial Market index closed 1.2% lower at 3,583.62.

Dubai Financial Market PJSC

- The stock traded lower for the second straight session yesterday and posted significant losses to finish at AED1.28.
- A signal line crossover by the weekly MACD from below along with the stochastic oscillator surging north, reflects at a bullish technical scenario. However, the daily MACD and RSI indicators are sharply moving downwards, hinting at possible bearish momentum in the near term.
- Key near term support is positioned at the 100day SMA (currently trading at AED1.26), followed by the AED1.24 and AED1.20 levels. A move back below the latter might lead to further acceleration to the downside.
- On the contrary, key resistance is placed at the 200day SMA (currently trading at AED1.30), followed by the daily upper Bollinger band (currently trading at AED1.34) and AED1.36 levels. A break above the latter might turn the main trend to bullish.

Amlak Finance

- After forming a bearish engulfing candlestick pattern on the daily chart on Tuesday, the stock traded with a bearish tone for the second consecutive session yesterday and settled at AED1.28.
- As of now, the daily MACD and RSI oscillators are showing loss of upward potential, hinting at weakness in the coming session. On the weekly chart, the RSI and stochastic oscillators are tranquil below their 50lines, further supporting the bearish view.
- Key intraday support is situated at the 20day SMA (currently placed at AED1.26), followed by the 50day SMA (currently placed at AED1.23) and AED1.20 levels. A breach below the latter might lead to increased selling pressure on the stock.
- Meanwhile, key technical barrier is placed at the 100day SMA (currently trading at AED1.31), followed by the daily upper Bollinger band (currently placed at AED1.34) and AED1.38 levels.

Emaar Properties

- After forming a bearish harami candlestick pattern on the daily chart on Tuesday, the stock continued to decline in the last session and closed at AED7.58, after touching a low at AED7.52.
- Although the daily MACD is pointing north, the RSI and stochastic oscillators are showing loss of upward potential, reflecting at a negative technical scenario.
- Important support is placed at the AED7.49/7.47 level, a move back below which might lead to bearish pressure on the stock, targeting the next supports at the AED7.31 and AED7.24 levels.
- However, the weekly chart is showing signs of positivity as the momentum oscillators are trading at a higher level above their midlines. Intraday resistance resides at the daily upper Bollinger band (currently trading at the AED7.72), followed by the AED7.79 level. A break above the latter might trigger upside momentum in the stock.

Abu Dhabi Islamic Bank

- The stock has continued with its uptrend in the prior session and formed a long bullish candlestick to end above the 200day SMA (currently placed at AED3.74) at AED3.77.
- As clearly visible on the weekly chart, momentum oscillators are trading with a bullish tone, suggesting at a strong technical outlook in the coming week. Similarly, the daily MACD is trading in positive region along with the RSI while stochastic is sharply heading higher, further endorsing the above stance.
- Immediate resistance is located at the AED3.82 level, followed by the AED3.84 and AED3.88/3.90 levels. A clear break and stability above the latter might lead to further acceleration to the upside.
- However, a daily upper Bollinger band crossover indicates at potential correction in the stock. Key support is placed at the AED3.73/3.70 level, followed by the AED3.67 and 100day SMA (currently placed at AED3.64) levels.

Abu Dhabi Commercial Bank

- Following an upper Bollinger band crossover on the daily chart on Tuesday, the stock recorded mild losses in the previous session and finished at AED6.95, after hitting a low at AED6.86.
- On the daily chart, the RSI and stochastic oscillators are showing loss of upward potential, hinting at mild negativity in the near term.
- Key short term support is positioned at the AED6.86 level, followed by the AED6.80 and AED6.71/6.69 levels. A breach below the latter might trigger further bearish momentum in the stock.
- However, a positive centreline crossover by the weekly MACD accompanied with the stochastic oscillator placed near its overbought region, suggests that there is still room for an upside. Crucial resistance is placed at the daily upper Bollinger band (currently placed at AED7.04), followed by the AED7.10 level. A surge above the latter might lead to positivity in the stock.

Islamic Arab Insurance Company

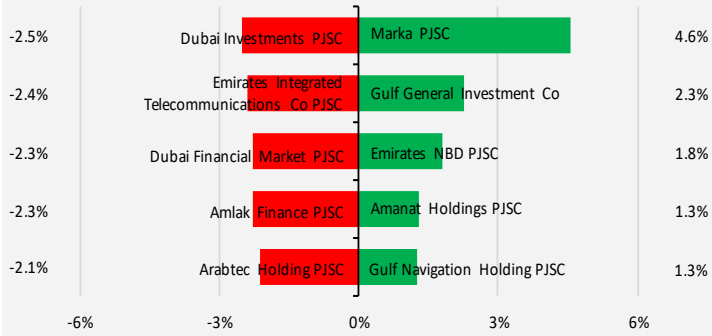

- The stock traded in the green in the last session and closed at AED0.484, following a high at AED0.490.
- With the daily MACD moving north and the RSI & stochastic trading with a positive bias, the near term technical scenario seems to be positive. Furthermore, a possible positive centreline crossover by the weekly MACD conjoined with the RSI and stochastic tranquil above their 50lines, further confirms the above stance.
- The daily upper Bollinger band (currently placed at AED0.490) is acting as an important resistance, followed by the AED0.494 and psychological AED0.500 levels. A move back above the latter might lead to further strength in the stock.
- On the flipside, key support resides at the 200day SMA (currently trading at AED0.480) and 20day SMA (currently trading at AED0.470). A breach below the latter might trigger negative momentum in the stock.
